

"Able to Perform"

Romans 4:2, 3, 5, 17-21

We know Abraham's the father
Of all those who would believe
For he trusted in God's promise
And His righteousness received.

Through His faith received God's pardon--
Not by works was justified;
He received imputed righteousness
From Christ Who'd come to die.

Though his years were near a hundred
And his body nearly dead,
In his faith he showed no weakness:
Placed his trust in God instead.

Abraham believed against hope
That he still would have a son,
And that from this single offspring
He would father great nations.

At God's promise never staggered--
Unbelief was not his form;
Through his faith he was persuaded
God was able to perform.
