

“Grandpa”

Once upon a time there was
A man who had three boys,
He shared with them the love he had
For things he did enjoy.
He loved to teach them baseball, and
He coached for many years;
He taught them how to hit a ball
And how to face their fears.
He also taught them bowling, how
To golf and football throw;
He taught them how to use a gun
And how to shoot the bow.
He liked to take them camping
Many hours north of here
Where fishing was abundant or
Where there were lots of deer.
The fishing trips were many;
There was hunting ev'ry year,
And typically before year's end
The freezer had some deer.
Eventually the sons he had
Had children of their own,
And Grandpa started over
With the lessons he had shown.

T.R. Hobson
Copyright 2017
Hobsonshymns.com