

"Will They Return?"

For many years we built our nest
And always shared with them our best,
But one by one they flew away
To seek their dreams in their own way.

We often dream when we are old,
"Will they return our hand to hold?
And will they share with us their best
And comfort us 'til we find rest?"

T. R. Hobson
Copyright 5/14/2013
www.hobsonshymns.com