

“Children in Need”

Children hurting, needing care,
Short on hope and long on pray'r
Waiting for someone to lend a hand;
Some abused in diff'rent ways,
Some neglected ev'ry day
Longing for someone to understand.
Some are searching for these needs;
Looking how to intercede
Like a lighthouse piercing dark of night.
They have rescued some in pain,
Brought inside from pouring rain,
Made a place of refuge in their plight.
They cannot meet needs alone--
Must have help from loving homes
Whether it be months or even years.
Time and comfort are a price
If you make this sacrifice,
But it's worth it saving kids from tears.
