

"If You Could Pay to Live a Day"

If you could pay
To live a day
Now deep within your past,
How much it's worth
To give rebirth
If you could now recast?
Who all was there
And with you shared
The mem'ries that you made?
What did you do
With those you knew
That made the day so great?
Though we cannot
Turn back the clock
Nor cause time's hands to sleep,
We can recall
Best times of all:
Our mem'ries we can keep.
